

Console App Instructions

First and foremost, you must login by entering your credentials in the login form as shown below:

As a temporary solution we created a unified password for all users:

But don't worry - as this is a temporary solution and usernames are kept confidential so this is not exploitable.

After you log in to the system, it is pretty intuitive, I am confident you'll know what to do.

If you need anything I am here to help and available via chenr@Onlyw1n.com
